At Bayshore HealthCare, we strive to make a difference in our clients' lives. To support our commitment to quality care and service delivery, we are a certified company of ISO 9001:2015 – an internationally-recognized quality management system.

In qualifying for the ISO 9001:2015 designation, we have shown that we follow stringent quality standards in the areas of customer satisfaction, service delivery and continuous improvement in how we care for our clients.

Being an ISO 9001:2015 certified company also means that we use well-established processes to guide how we deal with clients and manage our daily business. These processes help keep our clients satisfied and at the forefront of everything we do.

What does being ISO 9001:2015 certified mean to our clients?

We are proud to be ISO 9001:2015 certified and believe that having this quality management system in place tells clients they can trust Bayshore HealthCare to deliver the highest level of service. Specifically, it means we incorporate eight important quality management principles into our day-to-day business:

- Customer focus
- Leadership
- Involvement of all employees
- Process approach including written policies and procedures
- System approach to management with quality objectives
- Continuous improvement through constantly monitored indicators
- Factual approach to decision making
- Mutually beneficial supplier relationships
